

September 2018

CHMS Reading News

Famous Author and Cartoonist, Michael Fry, will visit CHMS this spring!

Michael Fry

Michael Fry has been a cartoonist/writer/entrepreneur for over 30 years.

In addition to The Odd Squad middle grade series of illustrated novels for Disney/Hyperion, Fry has created or co/created four international syndicated comic strips including Over the Hedge which runs in over 150 papers worldwide. Over the Hedge was nominated for Best Comic Strip in 2006 by the National Cartoonist Society Rubeen Awards.

Fry writes and draws from his studio in the Hill Country near Austin, Texas where he lives with his wife, Kim, their dog, Jack and several shrub-eating cows.

Torch reading will give out FREE Michael Fry books ALL YEAR to interested students. See Mrs. Chiodo in room 208 for details.

~Prizes~

CHMS students have the opportunity to fill out book review forms every month for rewards and prizes from Torch reading (Mrs. Chiodo, room 208)

*No strings attached ****

Simply read any book of your choice, pick up a book review form from your English teacher or Mrs. Chiodo, fill it out, and turn it in!

Exceptional book reviews have the opportunity to be featured on the CHMS morning news. You could be a star!

Family Reading Night

The first Family Reading Night will be on November 15 from 5-7pm at Chick-Fil-A inside Southpark Mall. Fliers coming home soon...

Give-a-ways, books, raffles, door prizes, and fun for all!